YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

This notice applies to the information and records we have about your health, health status, and the health care and services you receive at this office.

We are required by law to give you this notice. It will tell you about the ways we may use and disclose health information about you and describes your rights and our obligations regarding the use and disclosure of that information.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

For Treatment We may use health information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose health information about you to physicians, nurses, technicians, therapists, office staff or other personnel who are involved in taking care of you and your health.

For example, your physician may be treating you for a heart condition and may need to know if you have other health problems that could complicate your treatment. Your physician may use your medical history to decide what treatment is best for you. Your physician may also tell another physician about your condition to help determine the most appropriate care for you.

Different personnel working in our office may share information about you and disclose information to people who do not work in our office in order to coordinate your care, such as scheduling M.D., or specialist appointments, prescriptions, ordering X-rays, MRIs, or therapy appointments. Family members and other health care providers may be part of your medical care outside this office and may require information about you that we have.

For Payment We may use and disclose health information about you so that the treatment and services you receive at this office may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company or a third party.

For example, we may need to give your health plan information about a service you received here so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the service. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval, or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

For Health Care Operations We may use and disclose health information about you in order to run the clinic and make sure that you and our other patients receive quality care.

For example, we may use your health information to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also use health information about all or many of our patients to help us decide what additional services we should offer, how we can become more efficient, or whether certain new treatments are effective.

Appointment Reminders We will contact you to remind you of an appointment for treatment or medical care at this office. Please notify the front desk staff if you do not wish to receive appointment reminder calls.

Treatment Alternatives We may tell you about or recommend additional treatment options that may be of interest to you.

Please notify the front desk staff if you do not wish to receive information regarding alternative treatments.

Health Related Products and Services We may tell you about health related products or services that may be of interest to you.

Please notify the front desk staff if you do not wish to receive information regarding alternative treatments or health related products and services.

You may revoke your CONSENT at any time by giving us written notice. Your revocation will be effective when we receive it, but will not apply to any uses and disclosures that occurred before that time.

If you do revoke your CONSENT, we will not be permitted to use or disclose information for purposes of treatment, payment, or health care operations, and we may therefore choose to discontinue providing you with health care treatment and services.

In situations where you are not able to give consent (i.e. because you are not present, are incapacitated, or have a medical emergency) we may, using our professional judgment, determine that a disclosure to your family or friend is in your best interest. In that situation, we will disclose only health information relevant to the person's involvement in your care.
